It is to this ill fated trip of Queen Mab, to the principles of political econohat we are to attribute all the fub quent conduct of Mr. Grundy, relative to the Bank. We find him ftraining every nerve, to marshal a formidable party against it in the Legislature, by all the means which intrigue and duplicity could fuggest

About this time, the following act was passed into a law. As I have before remarked, Sir, I believe that it originated in the alarm, which your unfair m frepresentations had excited in the Legislature.

An act to amend and repeal in part, an act entitled " An act in corporating the Kentucky Infurance Company." Approved December 19th, 1804.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the Genera. Assembly, That the 25th fection of the faid recited act, shall be, and is hereby repealed.

Sec. 2! Be it enasted, That the notes which the faid Company shall at any time iffue, shall not exceed the debts due to them, the money in their vaults, the property real, perfonal or mixt they may own, and their capital Rock; passided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to risques on infurance which the faid company may have undertaken, and which shall be undetermined.

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That if the President and Directors shall at any time, iffue notes to a larger amount than is hereby limited, and any of fuch notes shall not be paid by the faid Company, the faid Prefident and Directors shall be liable therefor, out of their private indi vidual fortunes. And in order to ascertain the fact, whether the aforefaid limitation shall have been violated, it shall, and may be lawful for any court before whom a contest may arife, before the holder of any fuch notes, and the faid President and Directors, to make an order for the production of fuch of the books of the faid corporation; as will determine the fact.

Sec. 4. Be it further enacted, That fo much of the faid recited act, as authorises the corporation to proceed in a fummary way upon bonds, bill penal, written obligation or note, which does not on its face purport to be payable and negociable at their actions. He wishes to envelope their office, shall be, and is hereby repealed.

ROYALIST is a full blooded racer; he was bred by his royal highness the prince of Wales and fold to Thomas Bullock, efq. who kept him as a racer until he was purchased by mr. Abraham Skinner, who imported him in the ship Japies from England to New-York ---He is a beautiful bay, handlomely marked with a flar and fnip, fifteen hands three inches high, well proportioned, a good mover, fine action, free from all blemishes, and while in England performed equal to any horse of his age, as may be fera by the racing callendars, which are in the possession of mr. Sourbray, free for the perulal of any gentleman. He that food feveral feafons in America, and his coles are at least equal to any horse's, and are allowed by competent judges to bid fair to make excellent racers. A number of them will be feen at his flund during the feafon.

PERFORMANCES.

IN 1793, at three years old, the first time he started, he won 400 guineas at New-Market, beating Lord Grosvenor's chesnut Filly, PotSo's, out of Mariane, and the Duke of Bedford's colt by High-Flyer out of Conegonde. He started for the Craven stakes, and beat Dare-Bevil, Agamemnon, Coriander, (who beat Mr. Hoomes's celebrated horse Dragon,) Seagul, Golden Rod, Fort William' and fix others. The next time he started, he won a fubscription plate for fifty pounds each, beating Patriot, Cymbeline, Brimstone, Robin Gray, and seven others-He allo beat the Duke of Bedford's colt by High-Flyer, and the Duke of Norfolk's gray Filly by Dungannon, a fweep-stakes of 200 guineas each, at four years old-he beat lord Egremont's aged horse Sea-Gull, a match for two hundred gui- turf, to the 6th volume of the Sporneas across the flat at New-Market, ting Magazine, page 302 and 303, in 1705—He beat Don Quixotte, where speaking of the velocity of in 1795-He beat Don Quixotte, Galico, the duke of Bedford's Cub, and mr. Durand's Filley, by Saltram, for the Craven Rikes, and walked over the course at New-Market for 1200 guineas, and no horse dare start against bim. He also beat feveral others of the most capital horses in England, too tedious to enumerate, but may be feen by the racing calen-

I do certify, that I am informed, that Royalist has stood as a covering horse in New-Jersey in the neighbourhood of my brother's, who has written to me, that he was considered as the finest horse, and best foalgetter in that country. I have feen feveral gentlemen of integrity, who spoke very high of him-i also certify, that in the neighbourhood that Royalist has stood, they are in the habit of breeding from the first Engliss turf horses.

Oydo certify, that last season, I was the neighbourhood that Royalist stood in for several seasons, and iw lone of his colts, which were finer than any others which the fame mares had brought from other imported horses, also that I was informed by my father-in-law (who is in the habit of breedingfrom the finest horfes,) that Royalist is the best foalgetter he has ever tried, and made the greatest season of any horse in that country last feafon.

John Harris. Woodford cty. Mar. 26, 1804.

Stirling,

Never beaten but once, and then by accident;

W AS imported from London by John Hoomes Elq. of the Bowling Green, and extraordinary to relate, he won a King's plate at four years old, and another at five. He was confidered while running, by Mr. Weatherby, the Author of the racing calendar, and Clerk of the course at New-Market, (as will appear by a letter from that Gentleman,) to be, if not the first, undoubtedly the fecond horse in England. The celebrated horfe Hambietonian, (supposed by some to be his superior, and the first horse then on the British turf,) paid him a forfeit of 500 guineas, on a match over the Beacon courfe, (four miles, one furlong and one hundred & thirty-eight yards,) for 1000 guineas; Stirling was among the best racers that ever appeared in England; having won eleven races out of twelve, and when beaten, was undoubtedly the best horse that started, as he ran considerably off the courfe, and even then came in third.

TIRLING is a most beautiful y horse, and descended from the West stock in England, as will appear from his pedigree below: he is apwards of fifteen hands & a half, high, in very high form, extremely gay, with great strength & activity, & is a most capital stallion. Perhaps it may not be amils to observe, that Stirling's racing was generally four miles, and with the best horses then on the turf: and in order to prove him a horse of great speed, I beg leave to refer the Gentlemen of the the Barb horles, and comparing them with the English horses, the following extract follows in page 303: " It is accordingly faid, that the famous running horse Stirling, fometimes ran the first mile (of the New-Market course) in one minute which is at the rate of 82 feet & a half in a fecond, an inconceivable swiftness, even supposing it a little exaggerated, as is probable it was: but for further fatisfaction, we find it confirmed by Dr. Maty. If fuch a velocity had continued fome feconds, it might have been fairly pronounced, that the horse went swifter than the wind, it being very feldom that the most violent wind makes fuch way: the greatest known velocity of a ship at sea, is six marine leagues in an hour, and supposing the ship to take the third of the velocity of the wind which impressed it, the speed of that wind would not amount to 80 feet in one fecond .-The subscriber does not pretend to fay but the above account may be exaggerated, yet from a fair construction of the extract taken from the Sporting Magazine, he concludes that Stirling was felected as the fleetest horse in England, to compared mer-Son of Dodsworth-Burton his speed with that of the Barb hor- Barb Mare.

IN 1794, Stirling then three years old, won a match of 100 guineas, ing the first time he started, won a each, at Ascot, beating Mr. Crof- sweepstakes of 100gs each, h. ft. bey's Victor, (this was the first time he started.) He afterwards wen at Egham, the Magna Charta stakes of 20 guineas each, fifteen subscribers, beating with eafe Mr. Durand's Play-or-Pay, and three others. In 1795, when the property of E. H. Delme Etq. he won a 50l. plate a: New-Market, Duke's course, four miles, beating Lord Strathmore's Horatia, Lord Grosvenor's Lilliput, and Mr. Girdler's Bishop Blaze .-He won the Jockey Club plate for four years old, (Round Course,) four miles, beating the Duke of Grafton's Minion, Lord Clermont's Repeater, and Lord Grosvenor's Capficum. He received forfeit of 75 guineas from Mr. Rutten's filly at Epfom, and won the King's plate at Ipswich. In 1796, he won at New-Market the fecond class of the Oatland stakes, beating Mr. Wilson's Caustic, Lord Grosvenor's bay colt by Potfos out of String, Mr. Botts's Totteridge, the Duke of Bedford's Brass, Lord Egremont's Fractious, & Lord Darlington' Albourne. He. afterwards ran with the winners of the other two classes, for the main of the Oatlands, which he also won beating Lord 'Fichfield's Viret, and Lord Grofvenor's Lilliput. The same year he won the King's pitte at Burford, beating Mr. Botts's Totteridge. In 1797, Stirling beat Lord Sackville's Kitear, a match at New-Market, for 300 gnineas each: received forfeit from Sir Henry Vane Tempest's Hambletonian, in a match over the Beacon course for 1000 guineas, half forfeit; won a fweepstakes of 100 guineas each, (7 fubscribers,) beating Lord Darlington's St. George, and others, Duke's courle, (4 miles.) He was lamed before his next engagement, and has not started fince.

The above horse will stand the ensuing season (which will commence the 20th inft. and end on the rst day of August following,) at Lexington, and cover mares at thirty dollars the feafon, (which may be discharged with twenty dollars paid within the feafon) with one dollar to the Groom for each mare when put. To infure a mare with feal, fifty dollars, to be returned if fuch thould not be the cafe, if the mare remains the property of the person who owned her when put to the feafon; or forty dollars to infure a horie; attested notes for thirty dollars the feafon, or fifty for an infurance, to be fent with the mares, payable on or before the 15th day of October next.

Good and convenient pasturage is provided for mares coming from a distance gratis. They will be grain fed if required, at a moderate price. Great care and attention will be given to prevent accidents and elcapes, but no liability.

Wm. T. Banton. Lex. March 7th, 1805.

I hereby certify, that Stirling was bred by me, and was got by Volunteer, (one of the best fons of Eclipse) his dam Harriet by Highflyer, his grand dam by Young Cade; his great grand dam Childerkin by Second, out of the dam of Old Snap the was got by Fox, her dam Gipley by Bay Bolton, grand dam by the Duke of New-Castle's Turk, Byerly Turk, Tafolet, Barb, Place's white Turk, out of a natural Barb mare. SPREAD EAGLE in the New-Market Craven Meeting, 1795, beacross the flat, (feven subscribers,) beating Mr. Dawfon's Diamond, &c two others. In the following Meeting, he won the fecond class of the Prince's stakes of 100gs each, beating Lord Egrement's brother to Calomel, and three others. At Epsom Spring Meeting, same year, he work the Derby stakes of 50gs each, h. ft. (forty-five fubscribers,) beating with the greatest ease Caustic, Pelter, Diamond, Viret, &c. &c. after which he wastaken very ill with the diftemper, and never recovered his form of racing, which 'til then, was allowed to be most capital:

In 1796, he won a sweepstakes of roogs each, at York, (eight subscribers,) and was fecond for the great fubscription there, beating Sober

Robin.

In 1798, at New-Market, he came fecond for the Craven stakes, when twelve started, beating Druid, Gas, Bennington, &c. &c. and won the King's plate of 100gs, carrying 12ft. the Round Course, beating Bennington, and Lord G. H. Cavendish's

Thus, after a train of advantages obained upon the borders of the Drave. far from abandoning himself to hopes which the most liberal fortune feemed to hold out for his intoxication, he calculated that it would be more ufeful to France and her enemies to understand each other. He combated the great allurements of glory with the flill greater interests of humanity. He heard the cries of the victims who were speedily to be immolated during the last struggles of an implacable war, and he made overtures of peace.

For in flort, there never existed a fairer opportunity, or a more favorable moment to put an end to all the passions, and to listen only to the fentiment of humanity and of reaton. This moment, once loft, what term of duration can be affigned to a war, which all my efforts shall have been unable to bring to a close? Your Majesty has gained more in territory and in riches during the last ten years, than the whole extent of Europe; your nation is at the highest point of prosperity. What is the to expect from war? to coalefce fame of the powers of the continent? The continent will remain tranquil. A coalition would only increase the preponderance and continental grandeur of France. To renew the troubles in the interior? The times are no longer the fame. To destroy our financies ? Finances founded upon a good agriculture can never be destroyed. To deprive France of her colonies? The colonies with France are only a fecondary object, and does not your Majefty poffess already more than you can maintain? If your Majefly will think ferioufly, you will perceive that the war is without an object, and without any prefumable refult. Alas! what a melancholy prospect, to make men fight for the fake of fighting.

The world is large enough for our two nations to live in, and Reason is sufficiently powerful to find out the means of reconcilement, if a fuitable disposition to be reconciled exists on both sides. I have meanwhile fulfilled a duty holy and precious to my heart. May your Majeffy believe in the fincerity of the fentiin my defire of giving you proofs of it
